Join us June 10–11 in Lansing to celebrate the 43,000+ women veterans in Michigan and learn about advocacy for yourself and your community. At this conference you'll learn:

- How to advocate for your mental and physical health.
- How to advocate for others by learning how to run for office in your local community or apply for a commission or board.
- How to advocate for yourself in your job and get that raise or promotion.

This conference is jam packed with content, networking and tools to take your life up a notch!

CONFERENCE SCHEDULE:

- June 9: There will be an optional mixer to break the ice in the evening at the Radisson Hotel; (food and drinks are not provided).
- June 10: Breakfast, lunch and snacks will be provided at the venue. A full day of sessions with two tracks — Whole Health and Career Promotion, a dynamic keynote speaker and a panel from the She is A Veteran series. Vendor tables will be set up to browse in between sessions. Dinner and non-alcoholic drinks will be provided at the Lansing Brewing Company, with a cash bar option and cornhole! After dinner we will head over to the cozy Studio @ 414 for a few hours of storytelling. We will have charcuterie boards for some late evening nibbles and a cash bar will be offered.
- June 11: The conference ends with sunrise yoga and a few words from MVAA Director Zaneta Adams about the importance of Women Veterans Recognition Day.

CONFERENCE COSTS:

The registration fee for the conference is $60 per attendee. Hotel and other costs are not included. Special discounted room rates, ($85 per room per night + taxes and fees or $119 per room per night + taxes and fees), are being offered to conference attendees at two local hotels in Downtown Lansing. Dedicated weblinks to access the discounted rates for the hotels will be emailed to you after registering for the conference. Please note that this conference is intended for women veterans only.
